2015 Update to “The Orthners Then and Now 1981”, pages 60-61

Lorne and Barb continued to farm at Kayville. While on the farm, they purchased all but the home half section of Lorne's dad's land. They were foster parents for 22 years. Lorne managed the Kayville Co-op for 15 years and continued to farm. They moved to Pakenham, Ontario in 2005 and sold the farm in 2007.

They have 5 children and 12 grand-children as follows:

Agnes: Agnes completed her Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Saskatchewan and eventually settled in Ottawa where she obtained her Chartered Accountant designation in 1992. She worked with a local accounting firm and then a national firm. She is now an independent consultant and holds a position as Director of Canadian Operations for ASC Group, Inc.

Agnes met her spouse, Robert Spriggs, in Ottawa in 1987. They currently reside near Pakenham, Ontario with their 3 children as follows:

He returned to farming in 1985 helping his dad. In 1986, he purchased his grandfather's (Karl Rudolph Jackle) farm, 2 quarter sections. In 1987, he attended Wascana Institute in Regina for Machine Shop Practice and received a diploma in 1988. In the fall of 1988, he moved to Edmonton, Alberta to pursue a career as a machinist at CSM Compressor Supplies and Machine Work Ltd. For the next several years, Leonard worked in Edmonton during the winter months and farmed during the summer months. Around 1995, he rented out the farm and started work full time in Edmonton. About 1999, he sold the 2 quarters of farm land to his cousins Celia and Jeff Klemenz. He became shop manager at CSM in 2001 and worked there until the fall of 2007 at which time he and his partner Cheryl Mesic moved to Nova Scotia for about 8 months and did some world travelling. Leonard returned to CSM in January 2011 where he is currently employed as Operations Manager. Cheryl and Leonard live in Edmonton and do a lot of travelling during the winter months.

Reuben Eugene (Gene) Huber (June 2015)

I was born on Easter Sunday (1940) in our house on the family farm near Serath Saskatchewan. There was no time to get to a hospital (Regina) & I believe my grandmother, Dorothea, a practicing mid-wife with no professional training, helped in my birth. I have two older sisters & a younger brother. We lived in Saskatchewan for the first 4 years of my life but I remember very little about that. We went to the Serath Baptist Church & I have vague memories of riding in a sleigh to church. I also remember that Uncle Carl & Aunt Anna Orthner lived at the end of our lane & across the road.

We moved to Olds Alberta in 1944. This is where my mother's family was living. My father (Phillip Huber – son of Jacob & Dorothea) was a very good farmer & he did well on the farm. My mother's maiden name was Frieda Haerle. She was born in Germany & the family migrated to Canada in 1928. She worked as a housekeeper in Nokomis SK & my father met her at a church event. They were married in 1931.

I attended a one room school (grades 1-9) with the same very good teacher. The word "university" was never spoken at our home – not because my parents were opposed to higher education, but I think they did not know anything about it. After high school in Edmonton & Calgary I did go to University & studied Biochemistry for BSc, MSc & PhD degrees. I was fortunate to be hired on Faculty at the University of Calgary & went on to teach many students (~15,000) over 40 years. I also ran a research lab. We studied the enzyme that breaks down milk sugar during digestion. My graduate students, Post-doctoral fellows & technicians published over 100 papers about this enzyme. I am still finishing writing up about some of my research.

I married a very fine wife – Irene Wiebe. We are celebrating 50 years of marriage later this summer. We have 3 children & 9 grandchildren.

Dezene (43) is married to Joyel Hiller. They have 2 boys (Eli (8) & Marcus (6)). Dez is a professor at UNBC (Prince George) & studies bark beetles. He holds a Canada Research Chair. Joyel is pastor of children's ministries at their church (College Heights).

Allene (41) is married to Jeremy Hus. They have 4 boys (Ben (13), Simon & Isaac (11 – born a few days after the 2003 Huber reunion) & Jonah (5)) & 1 daughter (Julia (5)). Jonah & Julia are also twins. Allene is a physiotherapist. She is busy with the children, but works about one day a week at the Rockyview hospital in Calgary. Jeremy works in divestitures (sells tracts of oil & gas leases) for Encana. They attend Brentview Baptist.

Joelene (39) is married to Allan Okrainec. They have a daughter (Madison (7)) & a son (Cole (5)). Joelene is a pediatrician & her work involves diagnosis of children with autism. She works ~ 2 days a week & often appears on television in Toronto & across Canada talking about pediatric questions. Allan is a general surgeon & is head of general surgery for the Toronto hospitals. They attend 'The Meeting Place' in Oakville.

Grieve Not For Me

*Grieve not for me
 Nor mourn the while,
 For happier would I be
 To see you smile.*

*Let no tears fall
 Since I have passed away,
 But miss me and
 Remember me each day.*

*Live your lives
 As I would want you to,
 And treat thy fellowman
 As I would do.*

*And when the time has come,
 Your lives be through,
 I shall be waiting here
 For each of you.*
